Southern Italy has it all.

And if you want to be hands-on with the sailing and the food preparation, your friendly crew will be only too willing to oblige.

Where can I sail on Soleanis?

It all depends on how much time you have. From Marina d'Arechi near Salerno you can choose to travel northwest or southwards.

Sail the famous Amalfi Coast into the Bay of Naples and experience all the big city has to offer. Take time out to see Vesuvius and the thriving Roman communities engulfed by its eruption 2000 years ago. Further north are the Pontine islands of Ventotene and Ponza, not forgetting picturesque Procida, delightful Ischia and exciting Capri along the way.

To the south lies the lesser known but equally beautiful Cilento Coast and its tranquil bays. Stopover in Agropoli, Palinuro or Marina di Camerota. See another side of Italian life, by day and especially in the evening when the colourful towns and villages come alive. Further on lie the Aeolian Islands - Imposing Stromboli, rugged Salina and the pretty coves of Lipari.

By the time you've had a taste for coastal Italy - the restaurants, the shopping, the landscapes and the history, not to mention the great sailing and lovely beaches - you'll wish you had much longer. Let us help you plan your Soleanis charter and ensure you can make the most of every minute.
